Castelli del Grevepesa Clemente VII Settimo Rosso Toscana 2013

Rated 90 & Gold & Exceptional, Tastings.com, BTI, August 7, 2017

"Garnet black color. Aromas and flavors of smoked nuts, chocolate toffee, and cherry preserves with a supple, bright, dryish medium body and a polished, interesting, medium-length vanilla nuts, raisin, chocolate orange peels, and cedar finish with dusty, earthy tannins and moderate oak. A dry, nicely structured Super Tuscan built for the long haul and the table."

"A concentrated, powerful and vibrant red, with cherry, plum, spice and earth flavors. Sweet spice and fruit elements echo on the lingering finish. Sangiovese, Merlot and Syrah. Drink now through 2022."

"Very deep intense purple colour. Youthful, somewhat peppery, intense, gently spicy, ripe plum nose with some sandalwood notes. Dry, medium bodied, quite intense, slightly spicy, ripe plum flavours with a lingering, sandalwood-cedar finish."

"This is a mid-weight, fairly ripe and somewhat oaky Tuscan red of unspecified varieties, although from the herbal/minty subtext I suspect some cabernet in the blend. It is medium weight, fairly smooth and warming with a slightly confected feel. Good to very good length."
