

CHATEAU HAUT SOCIONDO 2014 Blaye Cotes de Bordeaux

Tasting Notes

Deep, almost black in colour. The subtle and pleasant nose of summer berries pierces through unmistakable, softly wooded notes of vanilla and cocoa. The wood also subtly marks the attack, giving way rapidly to a full-bodied roundness underpinned by a high-quality tannic structure. A wine with great potential.

Food Pairing: Meats in sauce

Chateau Haut Sociondo Blaye Cotes de Bordeaux 2014

Rated 90, Roger Voss, Wine Enthusiast, December 12, 2016

"This is a ripe, spicy and full-bodied wine from the Robin group of producers created by Grand Moulin's Jean-Francois Renaud in Blaye. The wine has both structure and rich blackberry fruit. The tannins are dusty, spicy and with fine acidity to balance. Drink this fine wine from 2019."
