Rated 93, Natalie MacLean, June 23, 2018

"Rich and full-bodied with black cherry and black olive aromas and flavours. Juicy and supple. This robust French red wine is a blend of mostly Syrah and with some Mourvèdre grapes. The grapes are sourced from the northern edge of the appellation. The 2013 Costières De Nimes JT was aged in oak barrels. Pair with grilled meats and rich meat sauces."

"A real blockbuster in the vintage, the 2014 Costières de Nîmes Jt is a more Northern Rhone-styled beauty that checks in as 95% Syrah and a splash of Grenache that saw plenty of whole clusters and aging in concrete and larger oak. Smoked meats, pepper, roasted herbs, graphite and assorted darker fruits all emerge from this medium to full-bodied, rich, beautifully textured effort, and while it's hard to resist now, it will keep through 2024."

"Soft and fleshy in feel, with a mix of plum and blackberry compote flavors laced with menthol and bay leaf accents. Shows a light anise hint through the finish. Drink now through 2019."
