J. Lohr Carol's Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon 2014

Rated 91, Michael Vaughan, vintageassessment.com, November 10, 2018

"Extremely deep intense purple colour. Intense, spicy, bright, intense, ripe cherry-plum-cranberry nose with some faintly herbal, cedary notes. Dry, medium bodied, well structured, bright, slightly spicy, dense, somewhat baked, plum-cranberry flavours with a lingering, cedary, fairly high acid finish."

Rated 91, James Laube, Wine Spectator, October 31, 2017

"Dense and compact, tight and concentrated, this offers loads of rich fruit, with tiers of dark berry, graphite, sage, cedar and crushed rock, ending a bit clipped. Best from 2020 through 2034. 2,341 cases made."

Rated 91, Robert Parker, Wine Advocate, December 30, 2016

"This blend of 79% Cabernet Sauvignon and 21% Petit Verdot has a densely opaque purple color, wonderfully sweet cassis fruit, blackberries and a floral note as well as a full-bodied, concentrated mouthfeel. In short, this is unquestionably the finest wine I have ever tasted from J. Lohr, so kudos to them. Of course, they're not giving it away either, but this is worth every bit of its $60 price tag. Drink it over the next 10-15 years."

Rated 89, David Lawrason, WineAlign, November 7, 2018

"This deep, dark cabernet shows concentrated, almost overripe cassis-like fruit on the nose nicely embellished with hints of mint, mocha and cedar. It is full bodied, dense, smooth yet oddly spiked and lifted as well. The tannins are firm but deeply embedded and not too astringent. The length is excellent."

"Full-bodied, but not heavy. Attractive aromas of dark chocolate, black plum and blackberry. Good mouth-watering action on the palate for food. Pair with a coffee-rubbed steak."
