

JEAN LUC COLOMBO 2015 Les Ruchets Cornas Syrah

Tasting Notes

Splendid dark colour. Very complex and elegant nose, both floral and fruity. Beautiful notes of violets, black fruits, spices and a hint of vanilla. Powerful palate, well-structured with very elegant and ripe tannins. The palate evolves in the mouth to show great complexity.

Technical Data

Varietal: 100% Shiraz
Alcohol: 13.5%
Region: Cornas

SEE REVIEWS ON NEXT PAGE

Jean-Luc Colombo Les Ruchets Cornas Syrah 2015

Rated 95, James Molesworth, Wine Spectator, October 31, 2017

"Dark and fleshy, with gorgeous blueberry reduction, warm fig and mulled black-berry flavors pumping through, inlaid with fresh bay leaf, lavender and charcoal notes. The long finish lets the fruit play out, with an added ganache detail. Best from 2020 through 2035. 820 cases made."

Available through Vintages +400960

Rated 93, Joe Czerwinski, Wine Advocate, robertparker.com, December 29, 2017

"The 2015 Cornas les Ruchets shows magnificent sandalwood aromas to go along with a plush, rich mouthfeel and a long, silky finish. Along the way it offers hints of cassis, crushed stone and roasted meat, plus some subdued spice notes. It should drink well for 10 years or more.."

Available through Vintages +400960