2017 Gewurztraminer Reserve

Tasting Notes

Featuring bright yellow highlights, this wine offers an exuberant aromatic palette of exotic fruits (lychee, passion fruit, pineapple, mango, apricot), flowers (rose, acacia), citrus and spices with a subtle thread of honey. On the palate, this Gewurztraminer is a full-bodied wine with solid structure and flavors that mirror the aromas plus a hint of anise. The rich, mouth-filling character lingers, seducing another sip.

Rated 92, Wilson Daniels, Wine & Spirits, April 2018

"This wine's rose scent might remind you of spring; it's charming in its spicy intensity, tight and yet continually giving. The pale fruit is mostly about textural richness, which makes this an appealing match for cracked crab"

Rated 91 & Best Value Wine, Natalie MacLean, July 3, 2018

"A terrific Alsatian white wine with classic Gewürztraminer aromas of lychee, rosewater, grapefruit and baking spice. Pair with spicy and Asian dishes."

Rated 89, David Lawrason, WineAlign, June 14, 2018

"This is a very good example of full blown, ripe almost thick gewürztraminer. Classic lychee, lemon blossom, ginger and honey aromas are very pronounced. It is full bodied, viscous, a touch sweet and powerful on the palate, with some heat on the finish. The length is excellent."

"Captivating floral, lychee, rose, grapefruit, and blood orange aromas waft from the glass. The palate is medium-bodied and fleshy with lively acids and off-dry aroma replays. It's well-balanced and has a long finish that is a touch bitter."
